

This Day Forward

Film Screening of an Inspiring Story of Christian Faith, Doubt, and Courage

Friday, October 19, 7pm

St. David's Episcopal Church, 16200 W. 12 Mile Road, Southfield, MI

"What if?

What if we could film a movie that truly impacted people's lives?

What if we could tell a story that embraced an honest journey of faith?"

Those are the words of director Brian Ide who set out to make a film that would help people ask important questions of faith, especially during times of challenge.

This Day Forward has been called a "brutally honest film that will open your heart."
Inspired by the true story of a wife and mother of three struggling to keep her family, and her faith, intact after her husband, a Lutheran worship leader, is diagnosed with a stage three brain tumor.

You are invited to a private screening of this film with the director, Brian Ide on Friday, October 19 at 7pm in the main sanctuary at St. David's Episcopal Church, 16200 W. 12 Mile Road, Southfield, MI 48076. There is no charge for the event however an offering will be taken,

Following the screening, Brian Ide will engage in a discussion with the audience. You can see trailers and find out more at www.thisdayforwardmovie.com If you have questions, contact Lynne at 248-557-5430 or email at lynne@stdavidssf.org